October, 2014

Dear Members, Friends and Supporters,

Freedom Party Of Ontario
240 Commissioners Road West,
London, Ont. N6J 1Y1
Phone: (519) 681-3999

Website: www.freedomparty.on.ca

With Ontario's spring provincial election now behind us, almost no one is interested in talking about Ontario politics, policies, platforms, or politicians --- myself included. What does remain of interest is how the future will fare for the average Ontarian now forced to live under the policies of the majority Liberal rule over the next four years. After all, for those looking for a change in Queen's Park, voting will not be on the agenda in Ontario until 2018.

So, without an election on the immediate horizon, what are those seeking better governance in Ontario to do in the meantime? - Just sit and wait? No, of course not. We've already seen the consequence of that approach.

Fortunately, democracy is not just about elections; it is an on-going process that involves every one of us who chooses, as a free citizen in a liberal democracy, to get involved. Or not. Politics is personal --- and this is the time to take a personal approach to a very public concern.

We can begin by taking a moment to reflect, and then look forward - from a personal, rather than a political, perspective. That's the theme of Freedom Party's next official dinner event which I hope that you will all be able to attend: POLITICS IS PERSONAL - SPEAKING STRAIGHT FROM THE HEART.

More a 'family get-together' than a political outing, this next step on our journey in the right direction is an opportunity to hear from a few key members of our growing 'family of freedom' - Salim Mansur, Al Gretzky, Paul McKeever, (plus myself, and perhaps even one or two others). It's difficult to predict just exactly what will happen when the focus of discussion becomes less 'political,' and more personal --- or as they say, straight from the heart. But you can bet that it will be a heart-felt and enjoyable experience.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED to join us for dinner and personal conversation on:

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 2014

Master of ceremonies Robert Vaughan will once again kick off the dinner event with Freedom Party's traditional toast to freedom. After a great dinner, you'll be treated to a great evening of hearing some of Freedom Party's best known personalities share their personal thoughts and observations on where we've been, where we're headed - and why they, as individuals, have chosen to take part in our journey towards the right direction.

I am also looking forward to meeting many of you who may have only recently discovered Freedom Party, especially in and around the London area where the FP's Election'14 campaigns and/or candidates have drawn an unprecedented amount of attention to our efforts for the first time.

Like many others, you have discovered a political party that is truly a party of principle, and which now has a thirty-year record of action (all available at the click of an on-line button) to demonstrate that this is indeed the case.

'POLITICS IS PERSONAL' reads the enclosed 'issue paper' with this mailer. That Freedom Party message was written in 1986, and reads as true today as when it was originally released and distributed. Most importantly, when in 1986 the statement was but an intention and a commitment, we can now also add, in 2014, that it is a matter of demonstrable record: "Every Freedom Party policy is consistent, integrated, and based on principle - the principle of individual freedom."

We knew then what we still know to be true today. The individual is the basic constituent of any free society. It is not the collective, nor the group with the greatest number. It is you. That's why politics is personal.

Make Saturday November 15 your evening to hear our featured speakers, Salim Mansur, Al Gretzky, and Paul McKeever speak from the personal side of things. Share in an event with like-minded people who value and appreciate the freedom that so many have mistakenly come to take for granted.

TIME IS LIMITED. Reserve today!

Let's get personal - and get together on November 15!

See you there!

Yours in freedom,

Robert Metz

POLITICS IS PERSONAL

When it comes right down to it, most people couldn't care less about politics, and quite frankly, that's entirely understandable.

Almost every decision made for political reasons raises our taxes, reduces our choices, and ultimately, restricts our freedom. Even worse, many of us feel totally helpless about the choices that politicians are making for us, and frustrated when we discover that we are denied the right to make choices for ourselves.

In Ontario, our individual freedom of choice is fast disappearing. Many of our most important choices are being made for us by other people, usually bureaucrats and politicians. Yet, all of us must bear the responsibility of supporting their choices, even if many of us disagree with the choices we're forced to support.

We all know the symptoms: political favouritism, special privilege, government waste, bureaucracy, strikes, taxes, red tape, censorship, accommodation shortages, labour monopolies, business monopolies, massive government debts, and laws that favour some at the expense of others.

If you think that none of these issues has a direct effect on your life, your choices, even your happiness --- look again.

You might come to notice how the politicians of the other Ontario parties are really all the same; they all share a common belief that they should be making our choices for us, and that the only purpose of elections is to give them the power to do so.

Unfortunately, whenever we give politicians the power to make our choices for us, those choices simply aren't ours to make anymore, and that hurts us all.

Freedom Party

That's why Freedom Party has always believed that "the purpose of government is to protect our freedom of choice, not to restrict it."

What Ontarians need today are elected representatives who believe that Ontarians have the right to make their choices for themselves. If there's one thing we all don't need, it's more politicians who want to take more of our choices away from us.

We need elected representatives who are committed to standing up for individual rights, not for special interests. We need a political party that believes the purpose of government is to protect our individual freedom of choice, not to take it away from us.

What Ontarians need more than ever before is a choice --- a new choice --- and now they have one: Freedom Party.

Every Freedom Party policy is consistent, integrated, and based on principle --- the principle of individual freedom --- the only principle that separates free societies from state-controlled, unfree, and stagnant societies.

While Freedom Party's 'live and let live' attitude may not be popular with the other parties, that's what distinguishes Freedom Party from the rest. A vote for any one of the other Ontario parties is the same as voting for all of them. A vote for Freedom Party is a vote for yourself.

We don't have to let ourselves be pushed around by politicians, bureaucrats, and/or special interests. We believe that each and every responsible individual has a right to make his or her own choices. If you feel the same way, then you owe it to yourself to support your new choice now --- Freedom Party!
